Business Regulation - Cellular Phone Carriers - Authorized Users

This bill requires a cellular phone carrier to allow (1) the customer of record who is responsible for payment on an account to designate other individuals as authorized users on the account and (2) an individual designated as an authorized user on an account to purchase services or devices or to take additional action under any service contract connected to the account (to the extent that the authorization extends to the action).

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: The bill does not directly affect governmental operations or finances.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: Wireless or cellular telecommunications services, as well as Voice-over-Internet Protocol services and international and interstate telephone services, are not regulated by the Public Service Commission. Cellular telephone companies are specifically excluded from the definition of a “telephone company” under the Public Utilities Article. The Wireless Telecommunications Bureau of the Federal Communications Commission licenses cellular telephone companies, while the Federal Trade Commission handles actions for deceptive marketing or fraudulent investment schemes.
